

Final Conference for 'How Did Thatcher's Children Fare?'

27th February 2020.

British Academy, London.

TIME	SESSION	SPEAKERS
10.00	Opening Address	Stephen
10.10	Session One: Thinking About Legacies at the Macro-Level	Colin Hay: "The Continuing Relevance of 'Thatcherism'" Stephen Farrall: "What Does a Legacy 'Look Like'? What Studying Thatcherism Has Told Us"
11.10-11.30	Coffee
11.30-12.30	Session Two: Using Age-Period-Cohort Analyses and Longitudinal Datasets to Explore Attitudinal Legacies	Maria Grasso: Age Period and Cohort and Attitudes Emily Gray: Age, Period Cohort and the fear of crime
12.30-13.15	Lunch
13.15-14.30	Session Three: Margaret Thatcher's Long Shadow	Tim Bale: "Are Conservative Party members still Thatcherites?" Clare Bamba: "What Was Thatcher's Health Legacy?"
14.30-14.45	Coffee
14.45-16.00	Session Four: How Ought we to View Thatcherism and the 1980s Now?	Stephen Farrall: "How Did Thatcher's Children Fare?" Roundtable Q&A: TBD

To reserve a place, please contact s.farrall@derby.ac.uk